The Milwaukee Seventh-Day Adventist School, formerly the Milwaukee Junior Academy, has provided Christian education since 1898 in the Greater Milwaukee region. Since then, the school has become the largest Adventist grade school in the Lake Union. Due to its rich and long history, the school buildings across the three campuses need improvements, such as a new parking lot and roof, which are estimated to cost about 250,000 dollars.

Pastor Myoung will be racing Ironman on September 29 to support the school with its building improvements and fundraising. Please support Pastor Myoung and the school by donating to this wonderful cause.
